

Thank you for becoming a PCAC member.

PCAC was established over 30 years ago and is a voluntary group of established and aspiring artists managed by an elected Board.

PCAC manage workshops located behind the Port Adelaide Visitor Information Centre and the Black Diamond Gallery located at 66 Commercial Rd

We offer affordable membership and we are open to all who agree to our code of conduct which is based on kind and respectful behaviour

(<https://portcommunityartscentre.com.au/members/member-info/>)

Financial members can participate in PCAC events that include 4 exhibitions a year and other planned events such as afternoon teas and market days. More information on events can be found in our quarterly newsletter on our website. Hard copies of the latest newsletter are available in the Visitor Information Centre and workshops.

We offer artist recognition through awards given at our exhibitions and discounts are available to PCAC members for art materials at Altaire Art and Supplies and Port Mall Newsagency

PCAC provide wonderful opportunities for all artists whether experienced or not. A variety of workshops are run for those wishing to experience various mediums. Classes are available for children to develop their skills with pottery and paint, and there are 2 members collectives for experienced Potters and Lino Printing. The contact details of tutors running workshops are printed in the newsletter or on our website. Please contact them direct.

A useful resource for new members is the FAQ sheet on commonly asked questions about exhibiting artwork or joining a workshop (<https://portcommunityartscentre.com.au/members/>)

The gallery is available for hire for artists to showcase their talents.
(See www.portcommunityartscentre.com.au for more information)

The best way to contact us is at mail@portcommunityartscentre.com.au

We have a phone contact (which is monitored regularly) for members who do not have access to email (0435981070)

Again, welcome to our group. We look forward to getting to know you, supporting your artistic growth and having fun.
